OMNIVAC ATTACK

"Eureka!" shouted Billy as he gazed upon his latest invention, a fully automated robot.

"Just wait until I inform the other Power Rangers about this! I shall call it Independent Computing Unit or I.C.U. for short. It can help Alpha 5 on monitor duty!" With a spring in his step, Billy left his garden shed laboratory and headed for the kitchen and some well deserved pizza.

Little did Billy realise, that from his sinister Lunar Palace, Lord Zedd's evil eyes were gazing down upon his humble garden shed.

"Ha ha ha! I can feel a cunning scheme hatching in my brain!" he hissed.

"Brilliant!" blurted Baboo.

"Great!" growled Goldar.

"Su-su-super!" stuttered Squatt.

"Fools!" bellowed the mighty Zedd head. "You don't even know what it is!"

"All your ideas are brilliant, Lord Zedd." said Baboo.

"How right you are, you bombastic baboon," agreed Lord Zedd. "Watch as I send my magic powers down to Angel Grove. Watch as I make I.C.U. into a rampaging engine of destruction. Ha hah hah!"

Meanwhile, back in Angel Grove, Billy looked through his kitchen window just in time to see his garden shed bathed in a strange green energy beam. Suddenly his latest invention, under the evil influence of Lord Zedd, burst out of the shed, evil fire blazing in its eyes. Billy was too shocked to speak.

"You gave me life, Billy," said I.C.U., "but Lord Zedd has given me power! I am no longer the puny robot that you created, I am now Omnivac, and I can do this!"

All around Billy metal objects seemed to come to life. Knives, spoons, forks, saucepans, a toaster, an oven, a washing machine, a vacuum cleaner! All whizzed out of the kitchen and attached themselves to Omnivac. Now a hulking, mass of metal, Omnivac was once again bathed in Lord Zedd's green energy beam, and before Billy's amazed eyes, Omnivac grew and grew. Twenty feet! Fifty feet! One hundred feet!

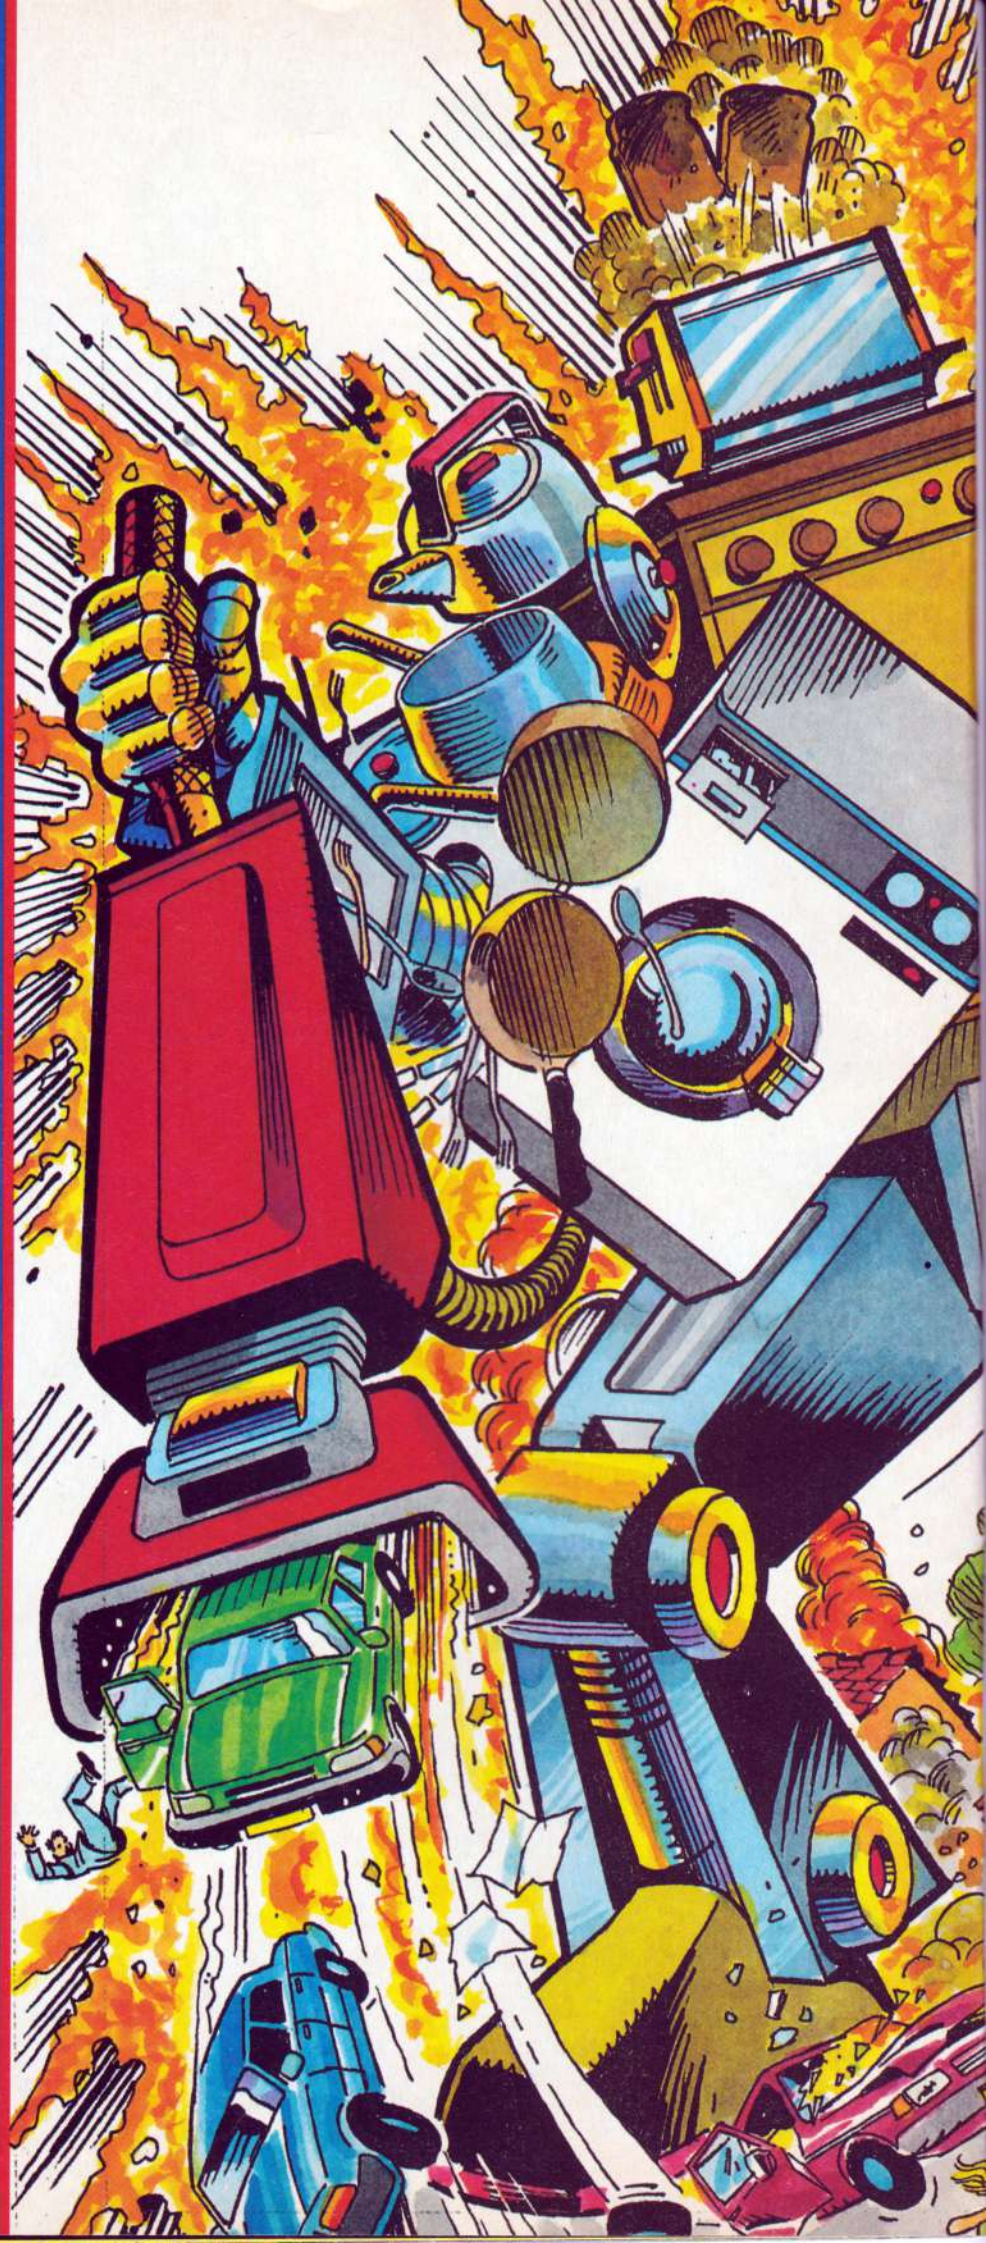
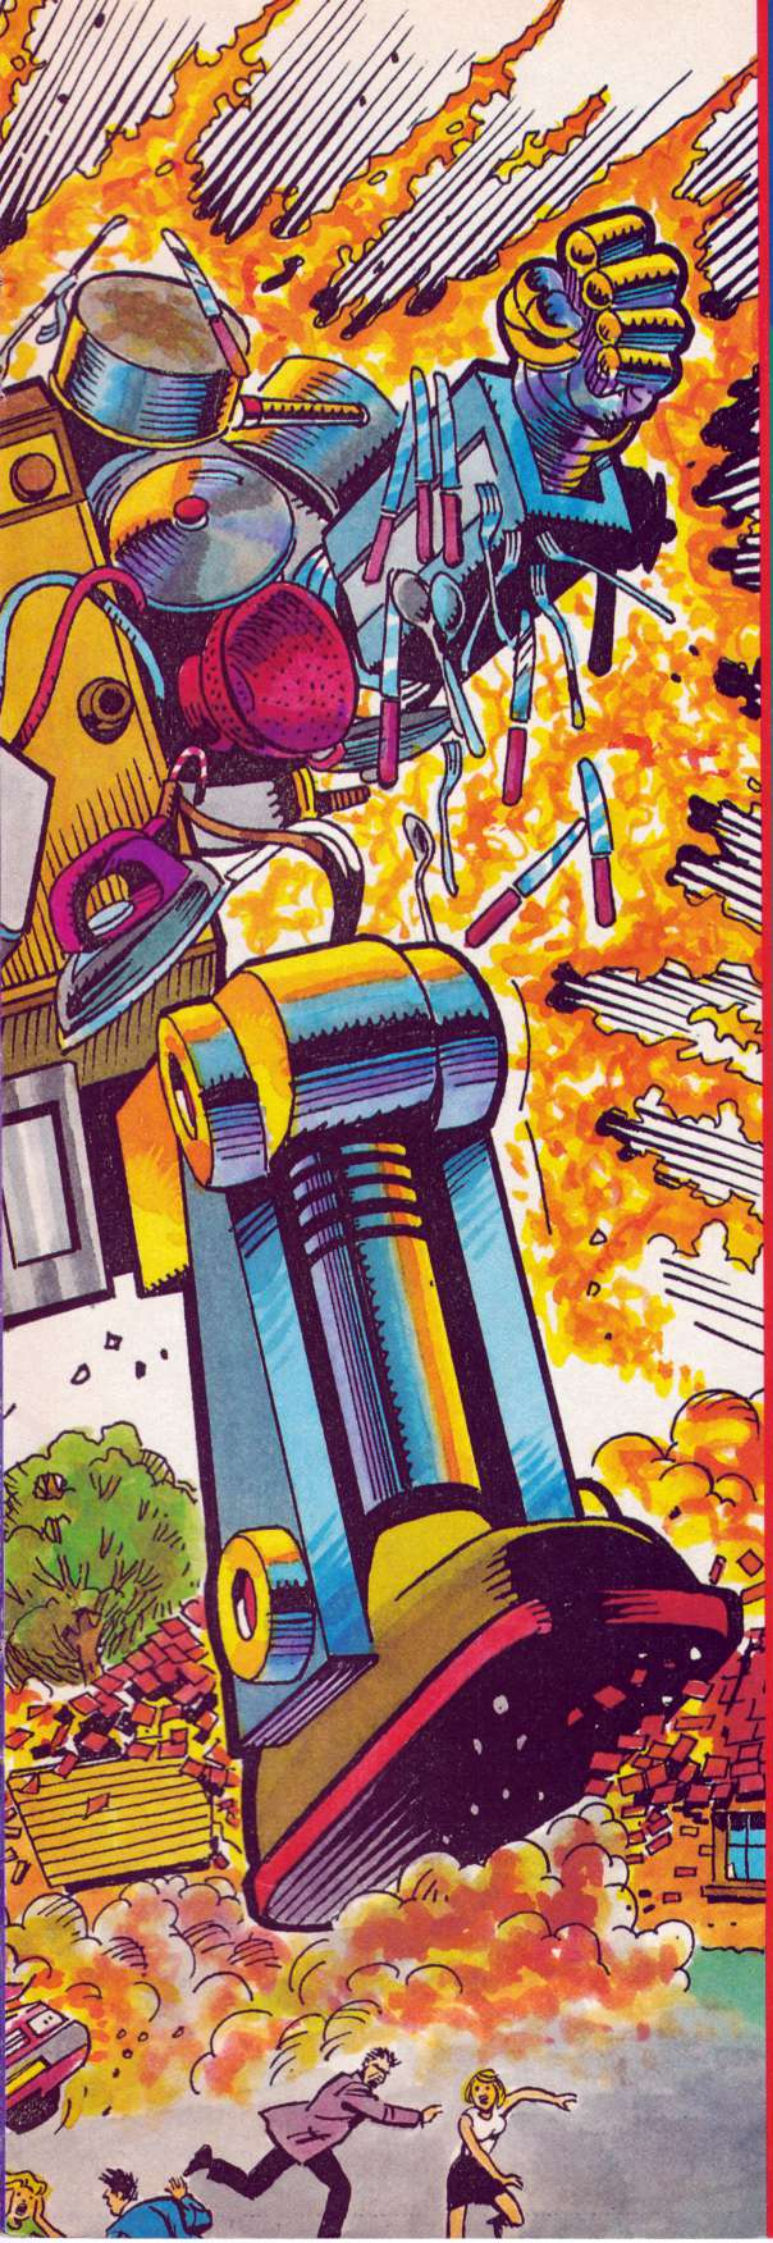
"Nothing can stop me now!" roared Omnivac as he towered over Billy. "I am invincible! Unbeatable! I shall crush Angel Grove, and the puny Power Rangers once and for all!" With that Omnivac went on his rampaging way.
"What have I done?" Billy moaned. "I've manufactured a monster - and it's up to me to stop him! But I'm going to need some help!" Using his wrist transmitter, Billy summoned his friends, and soon Tommy, Jason, Kimberly, Zack and Trini appeared by his side!

Quickly Billy explained the situation to his team mates. They could see just how upset he was.
"Don't feel too bad, Billy," said Tommy, "but if Lord Zedd is controlling that metal menace, this is one evil plan we've got to scrap!"
"That's right!" agreed Kimberly. "It's Morphin time!"
"Let's do it!" They shouted in unison, holding their Power Coins before them.
"Dragon Zord!"
"Tyrannosaurus!"
"Mastadon!"
"Pterodactyl!"
"Triceratops!"
"Sabretooth Tiger!"





Now instead of six ordinary teenagers there stood the most incredible super-charged heroes on the face of the Earth - The MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS!

"We've got to attempt to immobilise my renegade creation!" shouted Billy, rushing toward Omnivac.

Jason called to Billy. "Come back! We need to make a plan of attack!"

But Billy couldn't wait. He felt too guilty to think straight, blaming himself for Omnivac's reign of terror.

Looking down, Omnivac saw the Blue Ranger charging.

"So one of the Puny Rangers rushes to meet his own doom!" he boomed.

Omnivac's giant vacuum cleaner nozzle whipped out like a snake. Its suction power drew Billy to Omnivac's mighty clutches. Grasping hold of a lamp-post, Billy cried out to his fellow Rangers. "Help!"

The Power Rangers linked arms, forming a human chain and ran to help Billy.

Omnivac's power was strong enough to suck one Ranger at a time, but not all of the team joined together! Jason grabbed Billy's hand, and the team pulled with all their might, dragging the exhausted Blue Ranger to safety. The team reformed to make a new plan of attack.

"Billy!" said Jason. "We've got to fight this thing together, it's the only way!"

"I know," replied Billy. From now on you can count on the Blue Ranger."

"We need Thunderzord Power!" said Jason.

In turn, each of the Power Rangers called forth the most incredible battle machines ever seen on Earth! With an explosive burst of energy each of the Thunderzords answered the mystical summons of the Power Rangers, descending upon Angel Grove ready for battle.

"Let me take the lead!" pleaded the Blue Ranger over the Thunderzord intercom. "It means a lot to me!"
"Go for it, Billy!" came the answer from the other Power Rangers.

Unicorn Thunderzord leapt forward to the attack. "Ramming speed!" shouted Billy, as the Unicorn Thunderzord crashed into Omnivac's legs. The monster staggered under the blow, but soon recovered, spinning around to face the Thunderzord.

The Omnivac sucked the Unicorn Thunderzord towards itself. Billy activated his Zord's reverse thrusters trying to break free from the metal monster, but Omnivac just laughed and increased the suction power! The Thunderzord was dragged towards the waiting clutches of the monster. With seconds to spare, Billy had a brainwave! He slammed his mighty Thunderzord forward at full speed, rather than fight against the terrible sucking force. With an incredibly loud BOOM the two metal titans clashed, sending Omnivac crashing to the ground.

"Way to go, Billy!" shouted Tommy. "Now it's time to send Omniva back to Lord Zedd!"
The teenagers with attitude transforme their Thunderzords into the mightiest o battle formations, the Thunder Megazord! The mighty Megazord unleashed a blast of intense energy, catching Omnivac square in the chest, popping every circuit in its body! In an amazing explosion of light, metal and sparks, the huge metal renegade blew itself to pieces!

High above on the Moon, Lord Zedd's Palace glowed red, reflecting his rage!
"Curses!" croaked Lord Zedd. "Those putrid Power Rangers have thwarted my brilliant schemes once again!"

Meanwhile back on Earth, the Power Rangers were gathering around the Blue Ranger to congratulate him.
"I'm proud of you," said Jason. "You handled yourself really well!"
"I just wanted to make amends for having helped to create the menace of Omnivac in the first place," explained Billy.
"That wasn't your fault!" said Zack.
"Lord Zedd created Omnivac, not you!" said Kimberly.
"Thank you, guys. That makes me feel a lot better." smiled Billy. "Now I can start working on I.C.U.2. If I just increase the reverse polarity of the logic circuit that'll realign the positronic memory chip."
"Oh no," moaned Tommy, "here we go again!"
THE END.

BUILD A THREE HUNDRED FOOT HIGH ANT OUT OF PAPER!!

HA HA HA!

Hi there, brats! Auntie Rita here, with a fantastic activity idea to keep you busy on a rainy afternoon.

This three hundred foot-high ant will keep you occupied for hours, and is sure to impress your mum and dad, who'll say things like "You've built a what?" and "Where will you put it?" and "Oh dear, where did we go wrong?"

JUST FOLLOW THESE SIMPLE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Collect 16 thousand tons of paper.
2. Buy 30 thousand gallons of glue.
3. Tear the paper up into little strips.
4. Soak the strips in glue.
5. Build a three hundred foot high ant.

This activity is brilliant in many ways,

(a) While you're making this monster you won't have time to do 'goody-goody' things like tidying your room

(b) The fantastic waste of paper will contribute to the drain on world resources

(c) You will terrify people for miles around.

When your colossal ant is finished, take your magic wand, and bring it to life, unleashing it on the nearest big city! Oh dear, I've forgotten - you poor things don't have magic wands do you? What a shame! Oh well, forget the ant, it was a rotten idea. Don't worry I'll think of a much better activity for you for a future issue!

Ciao, my little witchlets!

IT'S THE WEDDING OF THE YEAR, THE CENTURY, OF ALL SPACE AND TIME!

RITA and LORD ZEDD, a marriage of truly awesome awfulness! The universe's most big-headed witch, walking down the aisle with the most gruesome cosmic villain of them all!

Will they make a happy couple? Let's take a look at our special wedding souvenir analysis.

YUK!

IVAN OOZE, expert on the truly diabolical, takes a look at our two 'love-birds' in our WEIRD WEDDING SPECIAL: LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT?

ABSOLUTELY NOT! Rita hates the sight of Zedd! She got that onion-headed imp, Finster to concoct a love potion for Zedd, so that he wouldn't send her away again!

YUK!

WILL IT LAST FOREVER?

Forever is a long time, when you're cooped up on the moon with a tomato-skinned, bad tempered, crazy creep like Lord Zedd! Ha ha! Rita may end up thinking she was better off in the space dumpster! And if Lord Zedd ever finds out he was duped with a love potion, he'll blow his top!

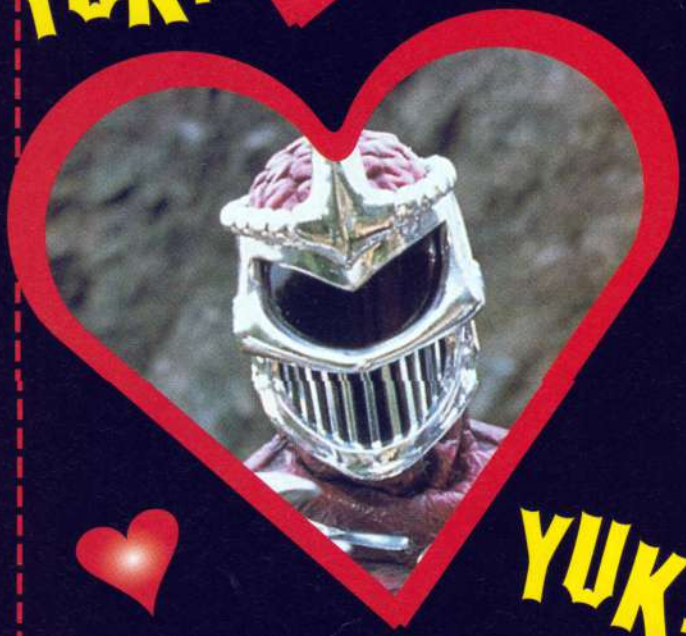
YUK!

IS RITA A GOOD CATCH FOR LORD ZEDD?

NO! Rita is totally crazy, incredibly bossy and ridiculously vain. And those are her GOOD qualities! Not only that, but she's a bad cook! Have you tasted her weasel-flavoured milk-shake? EE-yew!

DO WITCHES MAKE GOOD WIVES?

There is no reason why witches shouldn't make good wives, in fact, with their magical powers they can get all the boring daily jobs done in an instant, and have more free time for having fun! But Rita doesn't use her magic for doing anything helpful, she uses it all up creating bonkers monsters like Chunky Chicken, and trying to conquer Angel Grove Park! She's simply too full of black magic attitude to settle down and become a perfect little housewitch!



YUK!

IS HE ROMANTIC?

Zedd is about as romantic as Pudgy Pig! His idea of a good night out is going for a drive in SERPENTERA, the planet destroying monster machine...and then destroying a few planets! He couldn't even kiss Rita goodnight through that helmet of his! And if he ever takes her out for dinner I dread to think what they might eat... each other with a bit of luck!

YUK!

THE PERFECT HUSBAND?

You've got to be joking! Lord Zedd is only perfect in one department... he's perfectly horrible!

WHITE HOT

No Ranger has excited more curiosity than Tommy! In recent adventures you've thrilled to his new powers, as the sabre-wielding, White Tigerzord driving, dazzling new leader of the Rangers! But being a Power Ranger hasn't been a party for supercool Tommy, just look back at his action-packed cosmic career!

PHASE 1: THE EVIL GREEN RANGER

Rita created Tommy to be her own personal Power Ranger, she wanted her own teenager with attitude! Tommy had to pass a test of martial arts skill before he was given his powers - battling it out with an army of putties at a secret beach location! With the Dragonzord at his command, the spellbound Tommy fought the Rangers to a standstill and trashed Zordon's command centre! It took all Zordon's magic to save Tommy from Rita's power!

PHASE 2: THE GOOD GREEN RANGER

Tommy then entered the most difficult time of his life, as a Ranger without full powers! He was in peril every time he fought alongside his team! Power Viewers were shocked every week as Rita and Lord Zedd targeted Tommy, thinking he was the weakest Ranger! The Green Ranger even had to print a special message in this very magazine telling his fans to chill, and not worry about him! Up and down the country you all watched and waited to see if Tommy would lose his powers, and be beaten by his enemies! After many brave battles, the young hero's powers were damaged beyond repair. While his fans watched in disbelief, and his team-mates - especially Kimberly sighed sadly, the Green Ranger was no more!

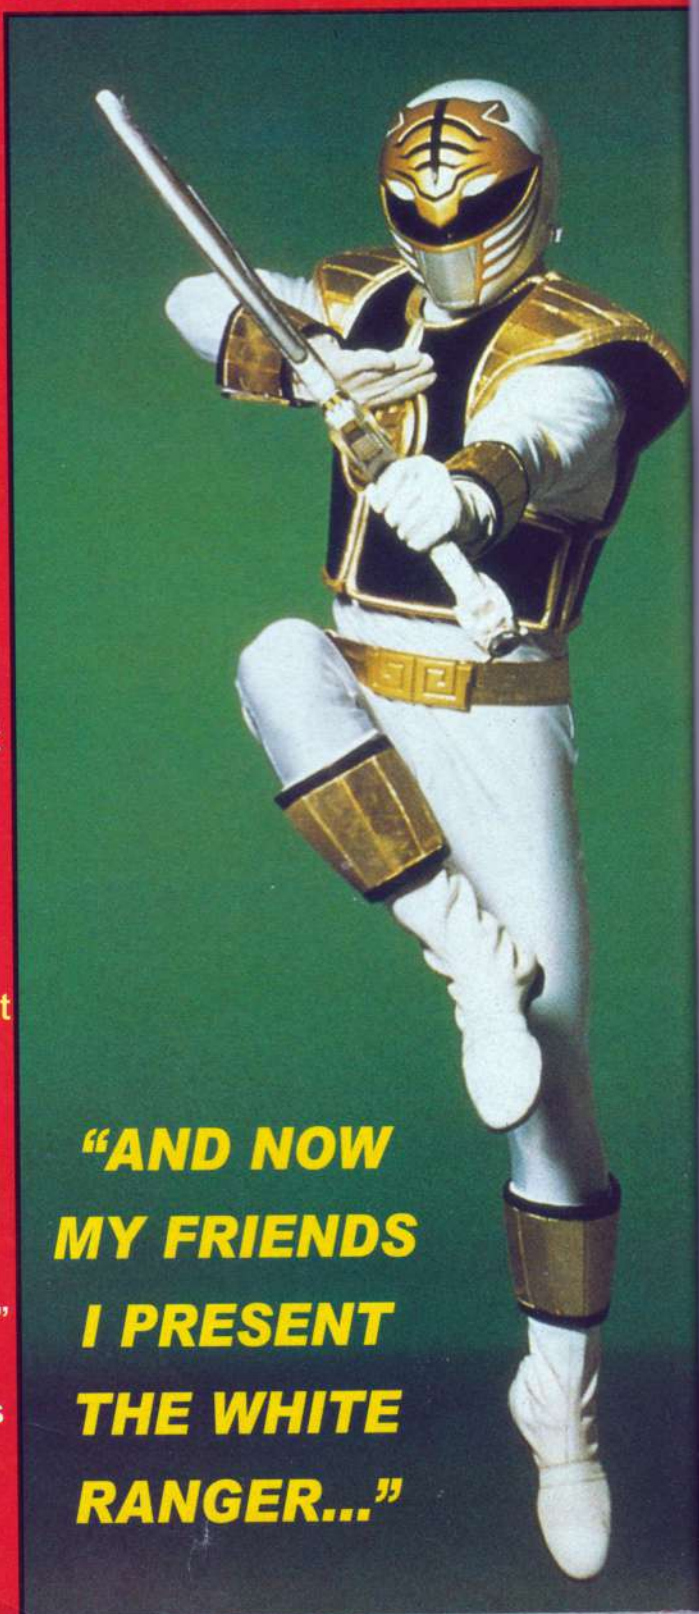
PHASE 3: THE WHITE RANGER

How wrong Rita And Zedd were when they thought of Tommy as the weak link in the team. It was during the touch-and-go time as the good Green Ranger that he proved his true courage! Zordon saw his potential, and in the unforgettable two-part epic 'The White Light' Tommy returned, now with full powers! The rest of the team were kept in mystery at the start. Zordon didn't want to lead them into any false hopes...creating a new Ranger is fraught with difficulty, the mighty energies of the morphin grid could overload at any time! Alpha and Zordon entered a secret chamber to perform the cosmic magic of the transformation.

It was Billy who stumbled across their secret. When he told his friends about the creation of a new Ranger they didn't know whether to be happy or sad! Kimberly was upset...she didn't want a new Ranger, she wanted Tommy back! But Billy and Jason had faith in the great wizard. Had Zordon ever been wrong before?

The team assembled at the Command Centre for the great moment...a bright light dazzled their eyes, as a dynamic figure descended towards them, and Zordon announced :

"And now my friends I present the White Ranger..." It was TOMMY! Kimberly fainted with surprise! It was beyond her hopes and dreams to have Tommy



"AND NOW MY FRIENDS I PRESENT THE WHITE RANGER..."

P.R.OFILE

back with full powers! "Man, awesome!" exclaimed Zack...and no-one could argue with that! Even Alpha was overwhelmed. "Ai ai ai! All this human emotion!"

But the incredible news was not over...Tommy was to become the new leader of the Rangers! He was given the White Tigerzord, and his special weapon - Saba the sabre, a living weapon that can actually talk to him!

PHASE 4: NINJA POWER!

In Power Rangers the Movie, Tommy's dynamic leadership took the team into outer space, and helped them find new powers! The warrior-woman Dulcea introduced the Rangers to their new animal spirits. Tommy is the high-flying Falcon! And in his new battle-armour he's more powerful, and more cool-looking, than ever before! His life as a Ranger has been a rollercoaster ride of thrills and chills...who knows what's next for the wild and wicked White Ranger? Only time can tell!

Make sure that you join us next issue when P.R.OFILES tells you everything you ever wanted to know about ROCKY - The new morphinomenal RED RANGER!

POWER RANGERS™

A PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM SABAN INTERNATIONAL

TM & © 1995 Saban.

SABAN INTERNATIONAL

BILLY THE BLUE POWER RANGER™ SPEAKS

"That Billy, he's such a brain-box!" That's what most people at Angel Grove High say when they think of me. And, they're right, I do love to build cool new gadgets, solve virtually unsolvable puzzles, and tinker around with the latest high-tech machinery! Usually I can find some way to improve it! Brain-work is important - but there's more to life than staring at screens, and studying! Let me see if I can express myself with an eloquent explanation - I mean, listen up, guys, I'll try to put you in the picture...

Playing and learning on computers is great fun. No-one enjoys matching wits with a micro-chip more than I do! But you have to learn when to stop! Spend too long at the joystick, and you're on your way to becoming a new kind of couch potato - a console potato!

In case you don't know, a couch potato is someone who pigs out in front of the TV all day, getting square-eyed and out-of-shape! A console potato is someone who would rather play all their sports, and get all their excitement out of a computer screen! Don't forget, you'll make more friends, and stay in much better shape, by playing real sports!

Studying is very important, but when it comes to exam time you have to remember to relax as well! Worrying about tests and reading the same thing over and over again isn't going to help you! Study hard, but take proper breaks and keep your mind fresh! A tired mind isn't much good to you or anybody! Alpha tells me that even computers have downtime, so that they don't blow a fuse! Humans are more sensitive than computers (oops I've upset Alpha now!), so learn to chill out properly between studies.

Look after your brain - and it will look after you!!

THE UNICORN THUNDERZORD™

The unicorn is a mythical horse, a beautiful creature from a more tranquil ancient world of wonder.

This mysterious animal is associated with magic, and timeless wisdom. A perfect choice then for the Blue Ranger's Thunderzord!

Billy, the team genius, known by Zack as the 'mainbrain', works brilliantly with the onboard computer systems, to stay one step ahead of the action, and produce the answers to the trickiest situations!

The unicorn's most famous feature is its single horn, and similarly, this Thunderzord has a unique uni-cannon mounted in its head section, perfect for any battle-charge against Lord Zedd's mega-sized minions.

When the Thunder-Megazord is formed, Billy's powerful vehicle, with its all-terrain tracks, takes the crucial support position as its right foot, prepared to be at the sharp end of any martial arts move!

The Unicorn Thunderzord - reliably ready to mobilise for any morphinonemal manoeuvre, as Billy would say. In other words, ALWAYS READY FOR ACTION, AMIGOS!

FINSTER'S MONSTERS

Hello Monster-Fans! Finster here again, your expert on the extraordinary! It's time for another one of my fascinating articles, but it's so hard to concentrate with Lord Zedd stomping around, yelling at everyone - and all because he was defeated again by the Power Rangers. You'd think he'd be used to it by now!

With Rita away, and Lord Zedd always creating his own monsters, I'm finding myself spending more and more time alone in my library reading books and thinking of new ways of destroying those Power Rangers! In fact, only the other day, I was thinking what a pain in the neck they are, and my notes opened up on a truly remarkable creature - COUNT DRACULA!

Count Dracula was a vampire created by the writer Bram Stoker. The Count lived in Transylvania and was based on a legendary ancient ruler, Vlad Dracul. Bram Stoker used the story of Vlad's own life and mixed it with various European vampire myths to bring us the spine-chilling tale so famous today!

Now, everyone knows that vampires have fangs and Squatt has been telling me that with the world changing so fast, fangs ain't what they used to be! He might be right, or he could just be making a terrible joke! Now where was I?

There are different kinds of vampires, and to be frank, none of them are very nice! I don't want to discuss them all, because I find them quite scary...in fact I find them very scary! While some steal blood, others suck people's energy a little at a time, until eventually they are completely drained! I know people like that myself. In fact, five minutes with Lord Zedd and I feel totally wiped out!

I should point out that, despite being immortal, vampires can be stopped. They can't stand garlic and won't go near anyone who's wearing a string of it around their neck or may have recently scoffed a load of garlic bread! They also can't stand crosses or sunlight. In fact, they have a tendency to melt into nothing if caught out in the daytime. They also have to be back in their coffin by sunrise, which can be a problem if you get stuck in a traffic jam! Maybe that's why you don't see that many vampires around these days...

Despite the fact that Dracula is so terrifying, humans can't stop making films about him! Vampires are incredibly popular! Humans seem to love horrible creatures! I mean, look at all the fan-mail Rita gets! Oh dear, now I will be in trouble!

RITA

Hello my little helpers! Thank you for all your letters telling me you prefer me to Lord Zedd! Obviously you human children aren't quite as silly as you look! Unlike Lord Zedd. He's exactly as awful as he looks! Unfortunately!

This issue begins with an easy-peasy enquiry! SUSAN FIRTH from LINCOLN says "WHY DO YOU HAVE A LOT MORE POWER THAN THE POWER RANGERS?" Well, Susan, the Power Rubbish are just ordinary weedy little earthlings, and I am a great and beautiful and immortal interstellar witch! Having a lot of power comes with the job! And Susan where did you get that yucky notepaper with the cuddly animals on it!?! You know my rules -

NO CUTE BUNNIES AND CUDDLY ANIMALS!

Oh dear, when am I going to get you lot trained properly?
The next earth-scrawl through my lunar letter box is from RICHARD, who didn't dare to send me his full name and address! He is crazy about Scorpina! He says, "I FOUND HER INTERESTING AND POWERFUL AT THE SAME TIME. SHE IS SO GREAT!"

ZONE

And he wants to know all about her. Well Richard, here's an interesting fact about Scorpina - the silly creature actually thinks she's more beautiful than me! Isn't it ridiculous! She spends half of the time rolling around in the form of a giant boulder, and the rest of it growing into a giant grotesque monster! Ha ha ha!

Aaron Best, age 9

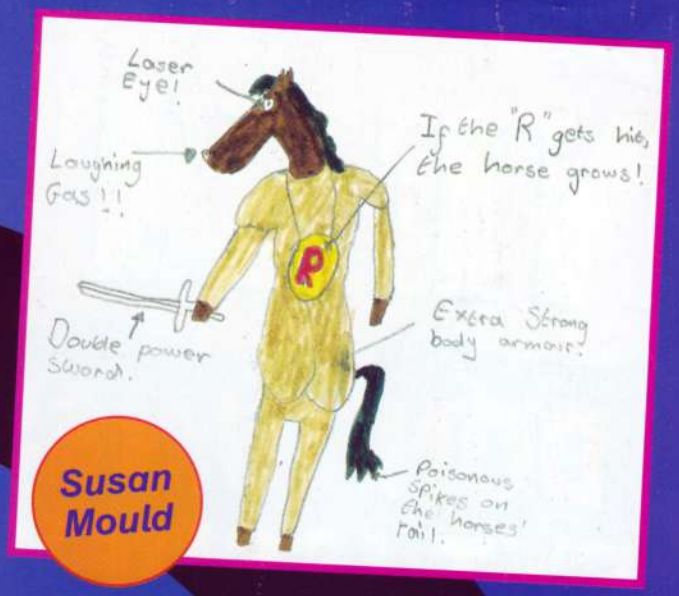
Oh dear, another letter from someone who feels sorry for those silly monsters!
LEWIS PARTRIDGE from HOUGHTON REGIS writes: "THE WAY YOU PUNISH THE SPACE ALIENS SQUATT, BABOO, GOLDAR AND FINSTER WHEN THEY HAVEN'T DONE ANYTHING IS RIDICULOUS." But Lewis - of course I punish them when they haven't done anything! They are supposed to be doing something - helping me! I don't know...doesn't anyone understand the pressures of being the most horrible person in the universe?!



Laser Eye!
Laughing Gas!!
If the "R" gets hit, the horse grows!
Double power sword.
Extra Strong body armour!
Poisonous spikes on the horses' tail.

Susan Mould

TOM MARTIN aged 7, sent me the kind of letter I really enjoy! He writes: "I THINK GOLDAR IS SMARTER THAN YOU AND HE SUCKS!" Well I do love being insulted - if you all hate me, it proves I'm doing a good job of being horrible! And to be told I'm worse than that monkey-faced, ape-brained dork Goldar, is the ultimate insult of all!
Then Tom has a message for my putties: "HEY, YOU MELON BRAINS FROM MARS, HOW COME YOU GO 'CLINK' EVERY TIME YOU GET HIT? BLEWOLEBLEBBLBLeeWOuBlL!"
Haven't you learnt yet, that there's no point in talking to the putties? Because all they can answer you with is, "BLBLBLMBeLMBMLNBeL!" In fact, that's exactly what they are saying right now! So it's goodbye from me, and "BLbLLLeMMLLLLwoBlBLl!" from them!
